FRANK REINELT'S STRAIN OF TUBEROUS BEGONIAS

CULTURE OF TUBEROUS BEGONIAS—Start tubers in flats in a mixture of peat and sand, leaf mold and sand or in peat alone. Keep moist in a warm place, until 3 or 4 inches of growth develops. Then, plant in a permanent location, or, pots. Started this way in flats during January and February, tubers will develop a heavy root system, which produce fine plants.

MULTIFLORA

ACIDANTHERA MURIELAE

Abyssinian Sword Lily. A real find from Western Abyssinia. As easily grown as the gladiolus, it is similarly planted and harvested. It blooms from mid-August to September. It has tall rigid stems 4 feet or higher, with very sweet scented flowers. Petals are pure white with a purplish maroon blotch at their base. Excellent cut flower.

Price $3.00 per dozen. $20.00 per 100.

GLADIOLUS

Our bulbs are grown by one of Oregon's oldest and most reliable growers. Gladiolus should be planted after the danger of frost has passed. Plant the bulbs about 4 to 6 inches deep, and about 6 to 7 inches apart. Full sun is best. Plant in staggered rows for a better effect. Excellent cut flower.

PICARDY—The old standby. Has won more prizes than any other glad. Large well expanded blooms of delicate shrimp pink, many open at same time. Late mid-season bloomer.

BEACON—Very spectacular, rose salmon with creamy throat. Blooms approximately 3 months after planting.

CANDY HEART—Very large blooms of a soft clear pink with bright carmine blotch in throat. Early mid-season bloomer.

MARGARET BEATON—A broad, tall beautiful clear white with small cherry blotch in throat.

KING LEAR—Long flower spikes, with velvety, ruffled red-purple blooms. Mid-season bloomer.

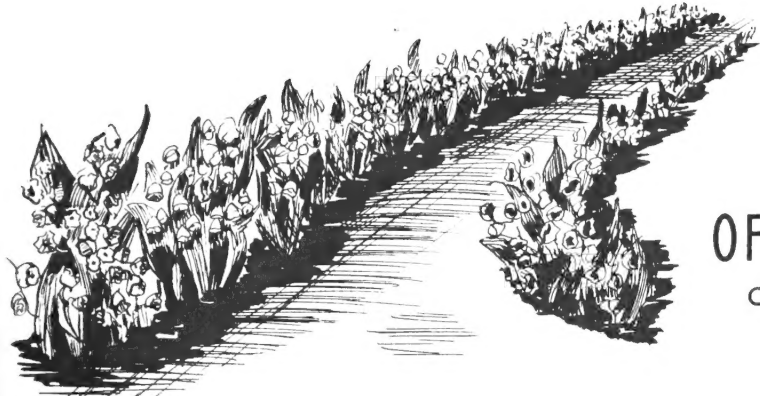

ROSA VAN LIMA—An excellent light rose pink, shading deeper in the throat. A very good cutflower.

SNOWPRINCESS—One of the very best whites, with long stems which never crook. Mid-season bloomer.

ALGONQUIN—Noted for its long spikes with its many brilliant scarlet flowers. Early bloomer.

Price: All varieties: $1.00 doz. $7.50 per 100

LILIES OF THE VALLEY

CONVALLARIA "FORTIN"

One of our oldest customers has grown Lily of the Valley "Fortin" for many years in her garden. This variety, and she has tried them all, is the only one which has established itself for more than ten years in her Piedmont garden. We were fortunate in securing a limited supply of this rare variety through our growers in Holland.

Price: 12 pips $3.00

100 pips $20.00

CALLA LILIES

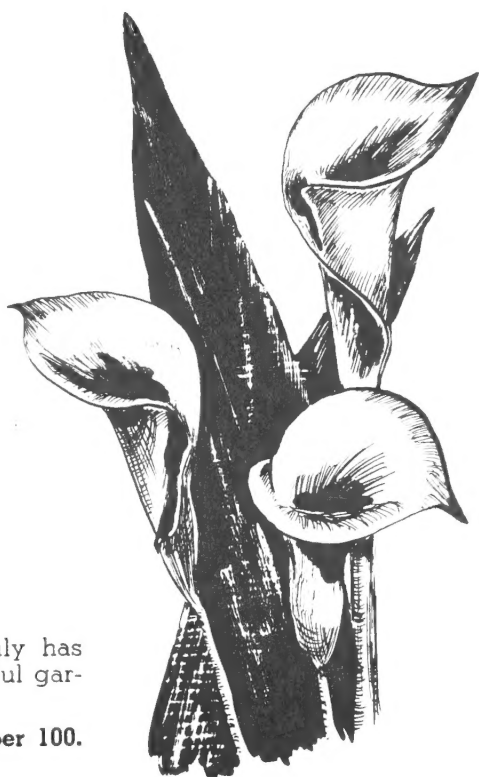

The pink and yellow Callas are summer blooming bulbs and should be planted from January until April. Plant bulbs about four inches deep, and keep well watered during the growing season. They can be left in the ground in the milder regions, but should be lifted, dried and stored in a frostless place when there is danger of frost.

CALLA RHEMANI SUPERBA. This is a new and far superior variety. Flowers are fairly large and are pale pink.

Price: 40c each. $4.00 per dozen.
$30.00 per 100

CALLA ELLIOTTIANA. The yellow calla lily has larger flowers than the pink and is a beautiful garden plant. Plant February to April.

Price: 40c each. $4.00 per dozen. $30.00 per 100.

POTTED BULBS

Those who were unable to plant their bulbs last year and want to fill in open places in their garden may get them now. We have several thousand bulbs planted in wooden plant bands and cans. Write us for full information as to kind, price and shipping details.
